

Let's face it, the revamped notifications and the new Notification Center are some of the best things that ever happened to iOS since multi-tasking. If you – like a a lot of other iOS 5 users – find that the notification banners take too much time to fade away and are wishing to just hit a close button or something so you can get back to your movie, game or browser quickly, you are in luck (that is, if your device is jailbroken on iOS 5).

tweak that will let you quickly dismiss the notification banner and the Notification Center without the need for swiping it back up.

And that's it. Simply tap the red 'X' button in the top right corner of the notification banner.
